Dear Sirs,

DR PAUL VAN SAARLOOS

We refer to your letter to us dated 24 April 2001.

We disagree with its contents. Our client denies he is currently employed by your client.

Our client has instructed us he does not want to retain the monies paid to him by your client subsequent to 9 February 2001. He has attempted to have his bank decline receipt of the monies but his bank is unwilling to do so.

Our client will be repaying your client the monies paid subsequent to 9 February 2001 upon his return from overseas.

We are unable to obtain instructions on the intellectual property matter raised in your letter until he returns.

Yours faithfully
CORRS CHAMBERS WESTGARTH
